

COPENHAGEN PRIDE WEEK

12-20 AUGUST 2023

PROGRAMME

COME TOGETHER

WELCOME TO COPENHAGEN PRIDE WEEK!

It is our pleasure to welcome you to this year's Pride celebrations in Copenhagen! We are also proud to share an ambitious nine-day program with you all. As always, the programme has been thought up, planned, and will be executed by our incredible volunteer groups - a huge thank you goes to them for their hard work in creating this event.

Indeed, our movement has only achieved things when we have come together. Which is why this year's theme of Copenhagen Pride Week 2023 is Come Together.

The decriminalisation of homosexuality (90 years ago this year in Denmark), equal age of consent, registered partnerships, adoption rights, legal gender recognition, hate crime legislation, the list goes on but all have only been possible because we could come together.

And now, in 2023, the need to come together has never been greater.

Nationalists, the far right, evangelical Christian groups, and gender critical and 'anti-woke' movements, and many others want to slow and reverse the progress we have made.

To challenge these destructive and hateful narratives, and to support the LGBTI+ community globally, we must once again come together.

And with that in mind, we invite you to join us for the biggest and boldest Copenhagen Pride Week yet. It is our sincere hope that we can create a space for the LGBTI+ community to come together in joy, understanding, and with curiosity for one another's lived experience.

BSP EVENTS

The Body and Sex Positive events are an important part of the programme, where we aim to create a safer space. The events center around subjects such as sexuality, sex, the body, gender and life experiences as a LGBTQ+ person. Our BSP content is presented through workshops, presentations and talks. For some events are subject to limited capacity and therefore require signing up beforehand.

In order to create a safer space for the participants, there are specific rules for the BSP events. The doors close when the events begin, so please be on time.

The rules are:

The events will take place in a closed-off room where photography or filming is not allowed. Tagging the participants on social media is also not allowed.

Doors close when the event begins. To avoid interruptions, it will NOT be possible to arrive late for BSP events. Please be on time.

What happens in the room, stays in the room. Respect the discretion of all participants and do not discuss the event or mention personal information obtained from the event with people who were not present.

WELCOME!

The Reflections are a new Danish band represented by Queer Music Agency. With a baggage full of sassiness, FVN is heading for the stars. It's girl power for all the money when FVN takes us into her rap universe. ## BETTY BITSCHLAP + TANDEM Tandem is two young men who let music pierce through their thick skin, making it pour out with unfiltered emotion. On stage, Tandem focuses greatly on creating an immersive experience. With their odd, spontaneous stage presence, the duo aims to subject both newcomers and long-time fans to a well-deserved mixture of laughter and tears.

To be more inclusive of all voice types and gender identities, the group will sing in voices to create harmonies instead of the traditional SATB choir format. Together we create a musical space where queer people can come together and participate in a meaningful and creative community, singing familiar pop songs regardless of previous musical experience. Globally, we see well-coordinated efforts to limit sexual and reproductive rights. LGBTI+ rights and the right to abortion in particular are under pressure, and we see these tendencies from the USA spreading globally. In this debate, the panellists will discuss international perspectives on sexual and reproductive rights, Denmark as a forerunner, and how we (politicians and civil society) best can support the national, European, and global fight for freedom to love who you love and be who you are.

A large number of LGBTI+ people have conflicts with their families due to the family’s lack of acceptance of their gender identity and/or sexuality. Some experience getting thrown out or end up in a shelter. At the same time many experience a longing for their family’s acceptance and love. We will, together with parents from Sabaah’s parent network and experts, talk about the complexity of these conflicts and share our experiences with building bridges between children, parents, and civil society.

ALLIANCES BETWEEN MINORITIES

No one's free until everybody's free. But how do we do this in practice? How do we ensure that the fight for freedom and equality - where we have gotten more aware of the intersections there are - becomes intersectional? How can we aid each other between different minority groups and organisations and together make each other stronger? And how do we ensure that no one is made out to be the scapegoat? This, and much more, will be discussed by a panel consisting of minority organisations.

IN A WORLD WITH BI+PHOBIA

Bi+sexual, bi+romantic (and other terms that are sometimes used synonymously) are by many viewed as something dangerous or something to avoid. Despite the fact that these terms fit the most people within the LGBTIQ+ community, knowledge about us is limited and often misunderstood - and that leads to prejudice! Many bi+people therefore understandably choose to lay low. But we need to make sure there is also room for those who want to educate others. This requires a community - Come Together!

Discrimination of LGBTI+ persons sadly exists in the Danish State Church and other denominations. Some go through conversation therapy and harsh requirements, while others leave their church and faith. ## DIFFERENT FROM THE OTHERS + EDMUNDO

Considered to be one of the first pro-homosexual films in the history of cinema, Different from the Others is about a homosexual concert pianist named Körner, who is blackmailed by the corrupt Bollek. The short film, Edmundo, depicts the young Edmundo, who is forced to return to his parents' home in the city he left to study and discover new realities. # THURSDAY 17 AUGUST

17.00-17.15

MYSTICAL ALLIANCE CIRCUS PERFORMANCE

Mystical Alliance is a collaboration between two performing artists emerging from contemporary circus. With their outstanding physical skill and unique artistic expression, they create a dramatic visual spectacle that brings new perspectives on the potential of our human body. Mystical Alliance features contortionist Ylva Maia, who will both shock, amaze, and seduce you all at once. Michiel Tange van Leeuwen is the other half of Mystical Alliance, and with his tall, extravagant appearance he is owning the stage without question. In a large metal frame, suspended from the ceiling, their bodies meet and spiral around each other, while exploring new ways to co-exist.

Venue: Show Stage

17.00-18.00

ARTIST TALK: CARL-JOHAN PAULSEN & MIKKEL KARL KRISTENSEN

Textile and performance artist Carl-Johan Paulsen, a.k.a Leo Patra, studies at the Gerrit Rietveld Academie and is part of the drag house The House Of Hopelezz in Amsterdam. Their artistic practice revolves around themes of queerness in mythologies, non-binary identities, and the public display of sexuality. In conversation with art historian Mikkel Karl Kristensen, the potential of queer art to create utopias and shape realities from which new futures can emerge, will be explored.

Venue: Pride Art, Nytorv

17.00-17.45

SPACES FOR ALL LGBTBI+ PEOPLE?

If you carry more than one minority identity, you can easily be overlooked and feel alienated in the LGBTBI+ community. That's why over the years, many double minorities have organised themselves into communities where there is room for diversity beyond the rainbow. In this conversation, we will invite representatives from these communities and activists who have worked with double minoritisation to talk about how we can create more space in LGBTBI+ environments and at LGBTBI+ events.

Venue: Debatteltet

Participants: Sabaah

17.00-17.45   (on request)

EXPECTATIONS OF MY BODY VOL. 3

Venue: Hovedkassen at City Hall

17.00-18.00

FANFICTION AND COMMUNITY

Fanfiction goes all the way back to the days where everything was printed on paper and where representation was very limited, so that you had to get started yourself if you wanted to explore the romantic relationship between Spock and Kirk. Today, fanfiction is an enormous community, and LGBTBI+ people have the possibility to play with and break the normative framework that still exists in mainstream media. We have gathered a panel that will enlighten us on fanfiction in a queer setting and that will get us all hooked on it!

Venue: Huset-KBH (Musikcaféen)

COMEDY QUEENS AT PRIDE SQUARE

Four of the country's funniest drag queens unleash their wits and beauty for a comedy show that's not like the others. A bit more wigs and queerness - a little less white t-shirt and jokes about the straight life.
