Winter Pride Programme

COME TOGETHER

HUSET

WELCOME TO WINTER PRIDE 2024

It is once again our great pleasure to welcome you to Winter Pride Week!

When we organised the event for the first time in 2015, it was with a vision to create a space where we can get close to each other, find warmth through community in the cold and approach each other's lived experiences with curiosity and an open mind. The event has grown over the years, but it still has the same core value of closeness for the LGBTI+ community in the freezing Danish winter.

The theme for Winter Pride reflects just that: Continuing the theme from the summer's Pride, it's Come Together. It's an open invitation to explore the many lived experiences that exist in our community and a call to prioritise solidarity and uplift each other's voices. Together we are stronger - all year round!

In recent years, Huset-KBH in central Copenhagen has provided the setting for Winter Pride, and we are delighted that this is once again the case.

A massive thank you to all the volunteers who have put a huge amount of work into the Winter Pride programme and who will be working hard with our other Volunquers throughout the week to ensure that our guests have a great experience. It can't be said enough - without volunteers, there is no Pride!

We hope you will enjoy this year's programme, which offers something for everyone. See you on 19-24 February!

Pride Night Live

The Culture Group at Copenhagen Pride once again invites you to Pride Night Live in Huset during Winter Pride Week from 19-24 February. This year, model, actress, and winner of the 'LGBT+ Person of the Year' award at the Danish Rainbow Awards 2023, May Lifschitz, will present the many exciting guests who will be joining the studio. Among other things, you can look forward to indulging in theatre, music performances, and interesting interviews with various actors and organisations who are all working towards developing different areas within the LGBTI+ community, be it the nightlife, the art and culture scene or basic rights for members of the community. Read more in the Winter Pride Week programme for each day and stay updated on the Copenhagen Pride app or Facebook. As always, you can watch the show whether you are in the studio or at home as it will be live-streamed.

ACCESSIBILITY IN HUSET-KBH

Copenhagen Pride should be for the entire LGBTI+ community! We recognise that we are not there yet when it comes to accessibility, but we are committed to working on it. If you have any questions or comments, please write to us at kontakt@copenhagenpride.dk.

The majority of Winter Pride Week will take place at Huset-KBH, located at Rådhusstræde 13 in the centre of Copenhagen. All venues in Huset-KBH are wheelchair accessible. Note that there are cobblestones in the courtyard.

Huset-KBH is on 4 floors. There is access to the ground floor (5 steps up from the entrance) and floors 1-4 via a staff-operated lift. During Winter Pride, there will be a Copenhagen Pride info booth at the entrance with volunteers who can help you find the right venue.

The toilet facilities are located on the ground floor on the same level as Bastard Café. The toilet is a small accessible toilet.

As you need to use the lift to enter the building and when you need to get around the building to get to the toilet facilities, for example, it is advisable to contact us in advance at kontakt@copenhagenpride.dk and let us know when you are coming. You can also ring us at +45 93977986 from 19-23 February between 16.30 - 21.30

It is permitted to bring a guide dog in Huset-KBH.

Huset-KBH does not have its own parking spaces, so you must use the public disabled parking spaces in the area. There are two close to the main entrance off Løngangsstræde 16 and one off Gåsestræde 1. The spaces are narrow but have a good length.

Distance to Gammel Strand (Metro): 400 m

Distance to bus 2A, 23, 31, 37 (Stormbroen): 170 m

QUEER PERSPECTIVES IN WARTIME

This panel explores the challenges faced by LGBTI+ individuals in conflict zones. Through personal stories and research insights, we delve into the resilience of queer communities, highlighting the role of queer people as advocates and agents of change. The discussion addresses the contributions of queer perspectives to conflict resolution and humanitarian efforts, emphasising the need for inclusive policies. Join us for an exploration of the intersection of queer-ness and war.

Venue: Balsalen

17.00–18.00 🇩🇰 🦿
QUEER SPOONIES

Conversation with guests about being a trans and queer person and being a spoonie at the same time*. A talk about physical and mental disability, chronic illness, mental health, neurodivergence. And about how we are often excluded from events that able-bodied, neurotypical and healthy queers can easily attend.

*spoonie: To be a spoonie is a person with "fewer spoons", i.e. mental/physical energy. The term comes from "the spoon theory"

Venue: Musikcaféen

Participants: Ivy-Oak

17.00–18.00 🇩🇰 🦿

WHAT IS "ASEXUAL PORN"?

For queers, porn can mark the start of the exploration of their sexuality. What do I like to watch? What would I like to experience – and what side of the situation entices me? But how can this experience be transferred to asexuals? How does being asexual affect one's relationship to porn? Can porn still be interesting and exciting without the need and drive for sex that is seen in so many other parts of society?

Venue: Vox

Participants: Asexual Association Denmark

18.30–19.30 🇩🇰 🦿 CANCELLED

HATE SPEECH AGAINST LGBTI+ PEOPLE IN SPORTS

How does hate speech towards LGBTI+ people in sports influence the athletes, spectators, and aspiring athletes? With a brand new analysis as background, Amnesty International will discuss with experts and LGBTI+ athletes how we can do better.

Venue: Balsalen

Participants: Amnesty International Denmark

18.30–19.30 🇩🇰 🦿

WHAT DOES QUEER MEAN?

Can everybody just call themselves queer? In "What does queer mean?" we'll explore what the word "queer" means in different contexts. Maybe you've asked yourself what it means to you, but what other definitions of queer are there? The word "queer" probably has as many different definitions as there are people identifying with the term and this debate will explore just that.

FILM: FLEE

At this Winter Pride we show the Oscar-nominated documentary from 2021 "Flee". Amin is forced to look at his past when his boyfriend Kasper proposes to him. He is sent back to his happy childhood in the 80's, but also to the ruthless civil war that transforms the safe and loving life to a warzone and splits the family into a million pieces. The war sends the 11 year old Amin on a dangerous journey that only ends five years later when he arrives, all alone, in Denmark.

Venue: Husets Biograf

19.00–20.00 🇩🇰 🦿

FEMININE AND SAPPIC

Women and non-binary that are sapphic (lesbian, pan, bi+, ect.) often have a complex relationship with their femininity. There are many expectations and norms surrounding femininity – both in society and the LGBTI+ community. Join a conversation about femininity and how to relate to it in a heteronormative society.

LET HER SPEAK X WINTER PRIDE

Hazel Alva & Signe Moore from the Copenhagen based comedy collective Let Her Speak are a fierce dynamic comedy duo that combines queer power, jokes and music. Accompanied by Josh Herring, the three performers invite you for an hour of queer musical extravaganza. Hazel is a musical comedian, Signe an improv comedian and Josh a songwriter/performer. Combined they will make the audience participate, amaze them with poignant zingers, bring queer themes to comedy and guarantee laughter outbursts.

PRIDE ART - EXHIBITION AND OPENING MEETING

After two years of successful exhibitions at Nytorv during Pride Week, Pride Art is now coming to Huset during Winter Pride. Join us for the vernissage of a small exhibition in Xenon's foyer, featuring some of the artists who participated this past summer. You can ask the artists about their experiences and hear about our upcoming Open Call. Additionally, Pride Art is expanding and seeking more engaged members to develop and organise future exhibitions. We invite you to an open conversation about the many ways you can participate! The exhibition can be experienced from Monday to Friday evening.

Venue: Xenon Foyer

18.30–19.30

50 YEARS OF FAGGOTRY AND QUEERS

Bøssehuset was founded 50 years ago. Join us for a conversation where we talk about art, activism, and about not being part of the mainstream community. What does that unpolished space offer, where everyone is welcome.

Venue: Balsalen

QUEER MOVIE NIGHT: MOVING THROUGH THE CURRENT

From political bike rides to intoxicating dances of self-discovery, this short film programme offers a glimpse into QTBIPOC life. To move through the currents of the present, we sometimes look to the places we ran away from and the ancestors we never met. This programme captures the moments where we came into ourselves, found community and nearly didn't make it through. Presented in collaboration with MIX CPH. 93 min., 2022. For more details, including descriptions and information about language and trigger warnings for each short film, see the Copenhagen Pride app or Facebook event.

Venue: Husets Biograf

Tickets: Free of charge but requires registration via Billetto.

OTHER EVENTS

16.00–18.00

THE 'UGLY LAW' AND THE HUNT FOR THE HUSTLERS

In the 1960s, the vice squad's campaign against male prostitution in Copenhagen culminated in the so-called 'Ugly Law', which criminalised homosexual buyers of sex. The campaign turned views on prostitution, homosexuality and gender equality upside down. Historian Peter Edelberg will talk about the time and how prostitution is not only unambiguous, but also a concept used by the state to regulate relationships between people. There is a church service at 16.00 and a lecture at 17.00–18.00.

NEURODIVERGENT, GENDER & SEXUALITY

What is my neurotype and how do I navigate the system and the norms? Neurodivergence is a broad concept that covers autism, ADHD, NLD, dyslexia, dyscalculia, etc. There is a large overlap between neurodivergence and gender identity, eg. 15% of autistic people define themselves as transgender or nonbinary. How does it feel to be a neurodivergent LGBTI+ person? We talk about the challenges we face based on our own lived experiences.

BI+ IDENTITY AND GENDER OF YOUR PARTNER

Many Bi+ people are met differently according to the gender of their current partner. Bi+ people are often invisible if in relationships perceived as heterosexual. Bi+ identities are pressured or lost. Within both straight and queer settings it can be difficult to sustain one's Bi+ identity. When society frames life after the gender of a present partner, parts of one's life story seem erased. Alienation and loneliness arises. The debate opens different perspectives and life experiences of Bi+ people.

EXPECTATIONS FOR MY BODY VOL. 4

In this series of events we explore different themes about "expectations for my body". In vol. 4, we explore young

LGBTI+ perspectives on bodily and sexual expectations. The panel will get into how they navigate between their own bodily expectations in the meeting with ideals in e.g. series, porn and on dating apps. Is there a gap between reality and the created ideals? How do young people view their bodies and sexual experiences? And how do you find peace in yourself as a young person?

Venue: Balsalen

18.30-19.30 🇩🇰 🦿

ANTI-GENDER MOVEMENTS

Anti-gender movements are growing and multiplying. They are in different ways and on different levels - from underground online communities to parliaments - working to restrict rights related to gender and sexual orientation. For this reason anti-gender movements are increasingly threatening LGBTI+ people's rights and general well-being. In this conversational salon you can gain more knowledge about these movements and about how we can proceed to secure a strong LGBTI+ movement.

THURSDAY 22 FEBRUARY

the Danish Rainbow Awards 2023, May Lifschitz welcomes you to the Pride Night Live studio. In tonight's programme, you can meet LGBT Asylum, who was named the winner of the Literary Award at the Danish Rainbow Awards 2023 for the book, Like rooting in quicksand. It depicts the ways in which a number of newly arrived LGBTI+ people navigate life in Denmark after being granted asylum. In addition, you can look forward to musical contributions from NIMÅ and gain insight into the unique ballroom culture when the Ballroom Association of Denmark visits the studio.

Venue: Xenon

Tickets: Available at Billetto. Price: 30 DKK (1 beer or soft drink included)

Note: The show starts at exactly 21.00, so the live audience should arrive at 20.30. After 20.50 it will no longer be possible to access the studio. Selected seats within the audience will be filmed during the show.

FRIDAY 23 FEBRUARY

17.00-18.00 QUEER ASYLUM: A NEW LIFE IN DENMARK

LGBTI+ refugees who were granted asylum because of persecution in their countries of origin based on their sexuality or gender identity still lack a sense of security in Denmark. In Denmark, permanent residence permits are hard to obtain, and refugees must reapply for a new temporary residence permit every year or two. The panel features LGBTI+ refugees who will share their experiences with living in this uncertainty, and the panel will present solutions.

Venue: Balsalen

Participants: LGBT Asylum

17.00-18.00 QUEER WOMEN FROM 1870-1970

Based on a large research project exploring queer women's love stories from 1870-2020, we repeat last Winter Pride's success panel – with new stories. We have located forgotten love stories in the archives, which we use to tell surprising stories about love, sex, and relationships, among both lower and upper class women* from the Danish past.

Venue: Musikcaféen

Participants: Roskilde Universitet

18.30-19.30 LIFE AS A FAT PERSON

Living in a fat body is not something that is particularly popular to deal with. The prevailing opinion is that you should try to get rid of the fat. We invite you to a conversation with the people behind the FAT book (TYK bogen) about being fat, about society's expectations and about the research. The audience is challenged to look at fat people with new eyes. We articulate prejudices and the existing truths – and look behind them.

Venue: Balsalen

18.30-19.30 QUEER FAMILY BUILDING IN DENMARK

This panel addresses the intricate challenges that queer individuals encounter when establishing families in Denmark, with a specific focus on the unique hurdles faced by expats. Denmark's progressive stance on LGBTI+ rights is renowned, yet the journey to parenthood for queer expats involves navigating a complex landscape of legal, cultural, and logistical considerations. Join us as we delve into the multifaceted aspects of queer family-building.

Venue: Musikcaféen

WINTER PRIDE CELEBRATION

Winter Pride yet again offers an extra non-alcohol party Friday night, where you and your besties can dance 'till you drop. We offer a dance floor and warm winter cosiness. Sofie Jacobi delivers the music, and her beautiful cocktail-mix of organic sounds from disco and afro combined with the synthymecanic sounds of house and Italo has become a signature sound. Bring your besties and best vibes.

Note: This party is alcohol-free, meaning you cannot buy or bring and visibly drunk behaviour is not tolerated.

FADO BICHA (PT) | UNION

Fado Bicha is a musical, performative and activist project created in Lisbon, by Lila Fadista (song) and João Caçador (music). Using fado as their tool, Lila and João propose a free exploration of this heritage, which overcomes some of the rigid barriers of current traditional fado, particularly gender norms and the erasure of the contributions and experiences of LGBTI+ people, but also the very doctrine of what fits within a fado stretching the boundaries of its domain.

Organiser: Union

Location: Nørre Allé 7

Note: No step free access

Tickets: 100 kr. via Billetto

GENDER BLENDER PARTY AND HYGGE

The Gender Blender is the time to go wild with gender presentation! This is NOT a 'cross-dressing party' or an event that enforces a binary idea of gender. Instead it's a place where gender exploration is celebrated and encouraged! Remember not to assume people's identity, always ask people for their pronouns, and just generally be kind to people. The event will include both a party (DJ, drinks, etc.) and a quieter chill area, so various levels of socialising will be possible.

Location: Studenterhuset, Købmagergade 52

FROZEN FANTASY SHOW & AFTERPARTY

Join us for the amazing Winter Pride Show in Pressen! Hosted by Britney Corvette, known from Absalon's Drag Race and Clown 2, the evening will feature stand-up comedy, fierce performances, and take the audience through an evening of live music from queer talent. Upcoming musician, influencer, and TV host Camma opens the show with her vulnerable lyrics and dancy synth sound. Indie pop talent Asbjørn will follow with a hot performance filled with dance music, and DAYYANI will end the show with a bang as she and her band take the stage with choreography and high-energy pop numbers.

After the show, the party continues as pop mastermind DJ Entree plays the hottest tracks and lights the dance floor on fire. During the party, drag superstar Philipina delivers fabulous performances and The Arctic Winter Foxes take centre stage with scantily clad and erotic gogo dancing.

Come dressed in your most frosty blue, silver, or glittery outfit - or come however you like! Everyone is welcome at the show, as long as you want to celebrate Winter Pride and respect everyone.

Tickets: DKK 200 via Billetto

Location: Pressen, Vester Voldgade 33
